

£10

when purchased from the Civic Society

This hardback book, publication date November 2012, celebrates the fascinating architectural detail of distinctive local buildings in Peterborough and its villages in 192 pages of superb photographs.

The book, published by Peterborough Civic Society, is available from the Society. An order form and up-to-date list of good bookshops and other outlets from which the book can be purchased is available on the Society's website.